A Note from the Playwright:

Thank you so much for joining me for this special performance of Rise!

Writing of Rise began many moons ago in 2020, during the COVID-19 lockdown. I picked up a journal to write and haven't stopped since! After Edinburgh Fringe, this version of Rise will be deconstructed and expanded into a series of new works.

I very much appreciate you stepping into this story with me. Thank you!

A big thank you to the Space UK staff and Edinburgh Fringe for hosting Rise at Edinburgh Fringe.

Special shout-out to my funding backers on Kickstarter and GoFundMe that have supported my journey with my first solo show Shattered and now Rise. You can learn more about the project by scanning this QR code:

Many themes surface in Rise - denial, abandonment, judgment, creativity, purpose, silence, retribution, hope, - but it's also a story about opportunity. An opportunity to finally find freedom, by allowing the buried parts of the past to speak.

We all experience pain, heartbreak, tragedy and loss; but, I'm learning, it's what we do with it that determines how we Rise.
